To Advance Is

To Improve...

FOREWORD

Throughout the ages, men have strived for perfection, through bettering themselves and the things around them. This year at Knapp, we the students hope to advance with the aid of our improved surroundings.

To You
Our Principal,

Walter Fulcher, we the Sword and Shield Staff proudly dedicate the 1968 edition of The Sword and Shield. For the past two years, you have sought to improve Knapp High School and its students. We feel that you have greatly improved Knapp and we are grateful to you. Your guidance, understanding, and endless efforts will long be remembered by everyone, especially the students that have had the opportunity to benefit.

HOMECOMING CANDIDATES

SEATED: L. Austin, F.T.A.; S. Coppock, Lib. Club; J. Jones, Soph. Class; E. Culbertson, F.H.A.; S. Saunders, Newspaper; S. Clinton, I.C.E.; B. Woodhouse, Jr. Class. STANDING: J. Dunton, Jr. Beta Club; S. Simpson, Annual; R. Porter, Fres. Class; K. Meads, Monogram Club; L. Meads, Sr. Beta Club; N. Midgette, F.F.A.; L. Harris, S.C.A.; S. Doxey, Cheerleaders; S. Brown, Sr. Class.

The crowning of Joseph P. Knapp's Homecoming Queen was the highlight of Homecoming's half-time October 20, 1967. Miss Elaine Culbertson, Queen, with her two attendants, Miss Sandra Clinton and Miss Becky Woodhouse were selected from a field of sixteen candidates sponsored by each class and club. Below: Miss Sharon Saunders and Miss Judy Jones as their escorts meet their car.

This year's Homecoming game proved to be a great success, with the exception of one tragic event. The sudden "death" of a Camden Rebel happened before the game ever got under way. Shown above are a group of dedicated Knapp Knights as they move the corpse into a waiting hearse.
